L'Hirondelle est un organisme sans but lucratif qui vise à faciliter l'accueil et l'intégration des nouveaux arrivants au Québec et à démontrer aux gens d'ici tous les avantages liés à la diversité des cultures et expériences. Chaque année, l'équipe de l'Hirondelle soutien et accompagne environ 3 000 personnes immigrantes et réfugiées venues s'installer dans le territoire du Grand Montréal. Pour répondre aux besoins des nouveaux arrivants, L'Hirondelle favorise une approche par étapes adaptée à la personne, aidant d'abord les gens à s'installer: obtention des papiers d'immigration, installation matérielle, apprentissage du français, connaissance de la société d'accueil. Une fois la personne installée, l'Hirondelle peut entamer des démarches reliées à son insertion au marché du travail.
