Tenure-Track Faculty Position

Assistant Professor, Indigenous Politics

Faculty: Arts

Department/School: Political Science

Position Description

The Department of Political Science at McGill University invites applications for a tenure-track position in Indigenous Politics. The Department welcomes applications from qualified candidates working on Indigenous Politics in any subfield of Political Science. Broad engagement with Indigenous Studies, including Indigenous Studies methodologies, curriculum, and/or community-based research, would be an asset.

The successful candidate will hold a tenure-track appointment in the Department of Political Science (www.mcgill.ca/politicalscience), and will work closely with the Indigenous Studies program (www.mcgill.ca/indigenous).

This position is part of a broader provostial initiative to strengthen Indigenous Studies and Education at McGill. The successful candidate will join a growing network of faculty committed to building Indigenous research and teaching capacity.

McGill University is located on unceded Kanien’kehà:ka Territory, land which has long served as a site of meeting and exchange amongst Indigenous peoples, including the Haudenosaunee and Anishinabeg nations. We acknowledge and thank the diverse Indigenous people whose footsteps have marked this territory on which peoples of the world now gather.

The position start date is August 1, 2020. Inquiries may be sent to the Chair of the Department, Juliet Johnson, at juliet.johnson@mcgill.ca.

Job Duties

Teaching, research, and service in the Department of Political Science and the Indigenous Studies Program.
Qualifications and Education Requirements

Candidates should have completed a PhD in a relevant field or be near completion. The language of instruction at McGill is English, but a working knowledge of Indigenous language(s) and/or French would be considered an asset.

Preference will be given to candidates of Indigenous identity in filling this position.
