

McGill

Tenure-Track Faculty Position

Open to rank of Associate Professor or Professor

Canada Research Chair Tier 2 in Pain Research for eligible candidate

Joint position in Faculties of Dentistry and Medicine (Department of Anesthesia)

Position description

The Faculties of Dentistry and Medicine (Department of Anesthesia) are advertising to fill a tenure-track position in the field of Pain Research. McGill University is one of the world's top-ranking universities. Our academics engage in outstanding research, teaching and learning, and service to the community. The Faculties of Dentistry and Medicine are Canadian and international leaders in research, teaching and service. The position is linked with the Alan Edwards Centre for Research on Pain at McGill University and its partner clinical unit, the Alan Edwards Pain Management Unit. These are first-rate, cross-faculty, multidisciplinary pain research facilities affiliated with the Faculties of Dentistry, Medicine and Science at McGill University. Pain research at McGill University is a priority for which it has an exceptional record of achievement.

The Faculties of Dentistry and Medicine (Department of Anesthesia) invite applications for this position in the field of Pain Research. Candidates with expertise ranging from fundamental to clinical and population research in the field of pain are encouraged to apply. The ideal candidate would have a PhD or equivalent and/or a health professional degree, plus an active research program. Responsibilities will include research, teaching and administrative work to support these activities. Rank and salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

If the successful candidate satisfies the specific eligibility conditions of the program, the candidate may be supported by the University for nomination to a Tier 2 Canada Research Chair (CRC) in Pain Research, which provides protected time for research within a full-time academic appointment.

Tier 2 Chairs are for emerging researchers (individuals who are no more than 10 years from having earned their highest degree). However, career interruptions (e.g. maternity or parental leave, extended sick leave, clinical training, family care, etc.) may be taken into consideration using the Tier 2 justification process to review the candidate's eligibility. Potential applicants who are more than 10 years from their highest degree with career interruptions may contact the institution to have their eligibility reviewed through the Tier 2 justification process. The eligibility conditions for the CRC chairs are described in detail at http://www.chairs-chaire.gc.ca/program-programme/nomination-mise_en_candidature-eng.aspx#s3.
