Position Announcement: Full Time Faculty Lecturer Accounting

The Accounting Area in the Desautels Faculty of Management at McGill University is recruiting for a Faculty Lecturer to teach in the BCom Program and the Graduate Certificate in Professional Accounting Program (GCPA). The GCPA Program is the Professional Education Program (PEP) accredited by CPA Quebec for students intending to write the national CPA exams. Candidates must have a CPA (Canada), demonstrated ability in teaching, and willingness to contribute to service activities.

Teaching responsibilities will include courses in both the Bachelor of Commerce and GCPA Programs. The B Com courses will include courses in the areas of accounting and taxation. The position will work closely with the GCPA Program Director and the First Year Coordinator and will assist in the academic and non-academic activities of the Program. Some of those will include, but not limited to the following:

- Academic advising;
- Participating in the admission process;
- Participating in advertisement of the program to BCom students, at McGill & elsewhere;
- Coordinating of course content across first year courses;

Applicants should include a cover letter, curriculum vitae, evidence of superior teaching, and the names of two referees. We will contact you before contacting the references. Applications should be submitted at:

Review of applications will begin immediately until February 1, 2020. Early applications are encouraged. The Desautels Faculty of Management wishes to fill the position for April 1, 2020. It is a two-year Contractual Academic Staff (CAS) appointment in the Accounting area; the appointment is renewable. Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience. Should you have any questions, please send your queries to yulia.nikitina@mcgill.ca.

McGill University is Canada’s leading research-intensive university and is located in the heart of Montreal, one of the multi-cultural metropolitan cities in North America. The faculty provides a supportive research environment and offers MBA, Master, PhD, and Undergraduate degree programs.

McGill University, is committed to equity and diversity within its community and values academic rigour and excellence. We welcome and encourage applications from racialized persons/visible minorities, women, Indigenous persons, persons with disabilities, ethnic minorities, and persons of minority sexual orientations and gender identities, as well as from all qualified candidates with the skills and knowledge to engage productively with diverse communities.

At McGill, research that reflects diverse intellectual traditions, methodologies, and modes of dissemination and translation is valued and encouraged. Candidates are invited to demonstrate their research impact both within and across academic disciplines and in other sectors, such as government, communities, or industry.

McGill further recognizes and fairly considers the impact of leaves (e.g., family care or health-related) that may contribute to career interruptions or slowdowns. Candidates are encouraged to signal any leave that affected productivity, or that may have had an effect on their career path. This information will be considered to ensure the equitable assessment of the candidate’s record.

McGill implements an employment equity program and encourages members of designated equity groups to self-identify. It further seeks to ensure the equitable treatment and full inclusion of persons with disabilities by striving for the implementation of universal design principles transversally, across all facets of the University community, and through accommodation policies and procedures (https://www.mcgill.ca/hr/benefits/disabilities). Persons with disabilities who anticipate needing accommodations for any part of the application process may contact, in confidence, this email, accessibilityrequest.hr@mcgill.ca, or phone at 514-398-2477. All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.
