Montreal: #1 Student City in Canada[†]

McGill University is located in the heart of downtown Montreal, a multilingual city that is celebrated for its union of European charm with a North American character. A true mosaic of cultures, the city is alive with many festivals, markets, and local cafés—diverse expressions of the joie de vivre for which the city is renowned. It's no wonder Montreal is hailed as the cultural capital of Canada.

Testimonial

“An international exchange is truly a two-way street: you have so much to gain in collaborating with students at your host university and living in a new city, but equally it's a chance for your host country to learn from you as a McGill ambassador.”

—Andrew Wong, BCom student
& exchange participant
