

Needed: Grader(s) for the Winter 2019 semester for the following courses:

Equity and Education EDEC 248 section 003/004 combined.

Tues & Thurs, 13:05-14:25

(173 hours total). Could be divided between 1 or 2 graders based on the need. $17.00/hour

Course Timetable Description:

Introduction to and exploration of contemporary issues and theories about equity in education and society in Quebec/Canada from a range of perspectives, including the historical, political, social, and economic. Provides learning opportunities for future educators to critically reflect upon and engage with equity issues and concerns in relation to schooling, including the exploration of classroom resources and activities that foster anti-racism, anti-oppression and intercultural approaches

Qualifications:

- Masters level or higher
- Strong language skills, preferably in English and French
- Background on cultural equity policy studies
- Experience with grading
- May need to attend classes (at the discretion of instructor).

If you wish to apply, please send your CV and cover email to: employdise.education@mcgill.ca

Be sure to put Grader and the course number EDEC 248 in the subject line of the email.

Deadline to apply: Monday, February 4, 2019

Note: Preference will be given to currently enrolled graduate students.