Health Insurance

- Full-time undergraduate students will automatically be enrolled in a health insurance plan. If you can prove you have a health and dental plan equivalent to the ones offered by McGill, you can choose to opt-out of the plan.
- All undergraduate students who are studying on the downtown campus (i.e. members of the Students’ Society of McGill University (SSMU)) and who are paying tuition fees at either the Canadian or Quebec rates are automatically covered. Opt-out deadline for SSMU plan: 2 weeks prior to the fee payment deadline in September.
- All undergraduate students who are in the Faculty of Agricultural & Environmental Sciences (i.e. members of the Macdonald Campus Students’ Society (MCSS)) and who are paying tuition fees at either the Canadian or Quebec rates are automatically covered. Opt-out deadline for MCSS plan: 2 weeks prior to the fee payment deadline in September.
- International students are automatically registered for the compulsory Blue Cross International Student Health plan upon registration to McGill. This health plan is administered through the International Student Services office. In addition, all international undergraduate students beginning in the Fall semester are automatically covered by the SSMU or MCSS Dental Plan. Opt-out period for International Health Insurance: August 1-31, 2019.
