Proposal checklist

Proposal Sections	Requirements (all single spaced pages with 12 point font and .75inch margins)	Included
Tell us your idea <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What is your idea? • How will you test it? • Why is your assembled team the best fit for this project? 	Max 3 pages (inclusive of tables and figures)
Budget and Project Timeline <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Budget with brief justification. Normal research expenditures like supplies, salaries for research personnel, students, and post-docs are permitted. Funds may not be used to (a) support salary of principal investigators, (b) purchase equipment above $7,000CAD, (c) cover travel expenses related to conferences. • Projects should start between September 2017 and January 2018. Projects should be between 12-18months long. 	Max one page
Plan for development of the proposal for extramural funding <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Indicate from which extramural support programs you will be seeking support on completion of this seed grant project. List specific programs and why you anticipate that the research supported by this seed grant will leverage external support. Which grant submission deadline will you be targeting? • What will be the thrust of the proposal and how is this specifically supported by this seed funding? • Who will be involved at this university and others? Briefly describe their skills related to the project. More people can be involved in your final proposal team than are included on the seed grant. • Who will read and comment on your proposal before it is submitted to an external funding source? (Having a colleague pre-review your grant significantly increases its' likelihood of being funded.) 	Max one page
Key references	Max one page
Include the Canadian Common CV for the principal investigator(s)

If you feel additional information is important to submit, an appendix may be included but there is no obligation for reviewers to read it. A violation of the above format will result in your proposal not being reviewed.
