SCAVENGER HUNT QUESTIONS/CLUES - WEEK 2

1. The entrance hall of the Macdonald-Harrington building features a photograph of what kind of village?
   INFO: This is an enlargement from the book “Earth from Above” by Yann Arthus-Bertrand).

2. PHOTO BELOW: Outside the Frank Dawson Adams Building, this may look like modern art - but what is it really?

3. Martlet House (1430 Peel) features a relief of what famous writer? (Hint – look up, way up!)
   INFO: This Scottish baronial-style building in downtown Montreal was originally the headquarters of the Seagram Company, once the largest alcohol distillery in the world. Built in 1928, it was donated to McGill in 2002.
