Natalie Zemon Davis
History, University of Toronto

BEATTY MEMORIAL LECTURE
Dealing with Strangeness
Language and Information Flow in Early Modern Worlds

Wednesday, February 13, 2013, 6-8pm
Leacock Building, Room 232
No registration required
Co-sponsored by the Montreal History Group and the French Atlantic History Group

A CONVERSATION WITH
NATALIE ZEMON DAVIS

Uneasy Boundaries and Shifting Borders in Gender and Women’s Studies

Additional Panelists:
Annmarie Adams
William C. Macdonald Professor; Director, School of Architecture

Elizabeth Elbourne
History and Classical Studies

Moderated by:
Brian Lewis
History and Classical Studies

Thursday, February 14, 2013, 4 pm
Leacock Building, Room 232
Followed by a reception
Registration is required. 514-398-3911 or info.igsf@mcgill.ca
Updates: www.mcgill.ca/igsf Entrée libre! Bienvenue à tous !

Organized by the Department of History and Classical Studies, in collaboration with IGSF, with support from the Mini Beatty Memorial Fund.