Human Rights of Canadian Children with Disabilities

Keiko Shikako-Thomas | McGill School of Physical and Occupational Therapy. Canada Research Chair in Childhood Disability: Participation and Knowledge Translation

Co-hosted by the McGill Institute for Health and Social Policy and the McGill School of Physical and Occupational Therapy.

Canada is a signatory country on the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities, and the Convention on the Rights of the Children. Researchers, government, community, families, youth. We're all responsible to make it happen. What can we do to support children with disabilities to achieve the full realization of their rights?
