

LEARNING FRENCH

From 0 To B2 In Four Years While Doing Your Degree

You must take computerized placement tests at home before the first time you register for any FRSL courses. Depending on your level indicated in the written test, you may be invited for an interview to determine your oral comprehension and expression level. The interviews are held before the beginning of each semester.

Find out the details and schedules here.

Year 1

Fall: FRSL 101 Beginner's French I (3 credits) & Winter: FRSL 102 Beginner's French II (3 credits)
OR

Summer*: FRSL 105 Intensive Beginner's French (6 credits)

Year 2

Fall & Winter: FRSL 207 Elementary French (6 credits, 2 semesters)
OR

Summer*: FRSL 208 Intensive Elementary French (6 credits)

Year 3

Fall & Winter: FRSL 211 Oral and Written French I (6 credits, 2 semesters)
OR

Summer*: FRSL 215 Intensive Oral and Written French I (6 credits)

Year 4

Fall & Winter: FRSL 321 Oral and Written French II (6 credits, 2 semesters)
OR

Summer*: FRSL 325 Intensive Oral and Written French II (6 credits)

*You can easily use each summer semester to take next level courses to achieve B2 Level even faster!

Don't forget other French learning tips and resources listed in the iSTEP program. They will compliment FRSL courses and benefit your studies!

Happy learning!