McGill Library

- Website is your main starting point
- Quick access to informational guides and main biomedical databases under Health & biological sciences

The screenshot shows the McGill Library website homepage. At the top left is the McGill logo and the text "McGill Library". To the right is a search bar with a magnifying glass icon and a "Quick Links" dropdown menu. Below the header is a navigation bar with links for "Find information", "Services", "Branches", "About", and "Contact". The main content area features a large search box with a "Search" button and a "Go" button. Below the search box, it says "Searching McGill Library holdings with the Sofia Discovery tool." and provides links for "Advanced Search" and "The Sofia Discovery tool guide". To the right of the search box is a "Explore the Library's history" section with a grid of images. A red banner below the search area reads "New to McGill? Get started at the Library!". Below the banner are three columns of links. The first column, "Use the Library", includes "Library account", "Article scan service", "Interlibrary loan (ILL)", "Questions? Ask Us!", "Find a librarian", "Hours", "Room booking", and "Computers & software". The second column, "Find", includes "Databases A-Z", "E-journals A-Z", "Course readings", "Course guides", "Citation guides", "Reference materials", "Theses & dissertations", and "Newspapers". The third column, "Subject guides", includes "Agriculture & environmental sciences", "Art, architecture & urban planning", "Education", "Engineering", "Health & biological sciences" (highlighted with a red box), "Humanities", "Law", and "Management & business".

MUHC and other hospital libraries

- Direct links to McGill databases
- Books and journals held at the AMI, Glen (MCH/MCI/RVH/Research Institute) and MGH
- Otherwise depends on the location
- Neuro and JGH libraries in McGill catalogue
- Douglas library has their own site

The screenshot shows the MUHC Libraries website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the MUHC logo, McGill University Health Centre logo, and a 'LIBRARIES' button. To the right are links for Home, Remote Access, Contact Us, and Français, along with a website search box. Below this is a main navigation menu with links for About, Borrow, Request, Renew, Searching, Training and Guides, E-resources, and Patient Portal. A large banner for the 'COVID-19 Knowledge Hub' features a hand typing on a laptop. Below the banner are tabs for MUHC E-journals and Print Journals, MUHC Books, McGill E-journals, and McGill Catalogue. A search bar is located below the tabs, with a 'GO' button and an 'ADVANCED SEARCH' link. On the left, there is a section titled 'MUHC Libraries Answers to Common Questions' with a link to the FAQ. On the right, there is a 'Resources' section with a 'Quick Links' table. A green arrow points to the 'McGill' column in this table.
