

Education

in New Spaces & Workplaces

Host an Intern!

McGill's Department of Integrated Studies in Education (DISE) is seeking internship hosts for students in its interdisciplinary undergraduate program, the B.A. \(Education\); Major in Education in Global Contexts.

This program sets the stage for Education students to pursue careers as social changemakers and experts in teaching and learning in an organizational environment.

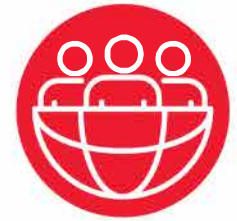

Students learn fundamentals in sociology, psychology, leadership studies, history, philosophy, and public policy before being placed in a non-profit, business, or government workplace settings to fulfill a 150-hour internship between either May to August or January to April.

McGill

Department of Integrated Studies
in Education

McGill's B.A.(Education); Major in Education in Global Contexts

Opportunities for Internship Hosting

We're looking for Internship Hosts who can provide:

- A safe, structured, and professional workplace setting
- A specific project focus and/or feasible workload
- A dedicated intern supervisor, interested in mentorship
- Regular meetings with the intern to monitor work and offer feedback
- Clear communication in outlining roles and responsibilities
- Written verification of the intern's completed work hours

Education Interns can:

- Bring fresh insight to your organization
- Provide added support in driving projects forward
- Be a cost-effective* way to expand your team
- Inspire colleagues to discover new skillsets
- Help build morale in creating the opportunity for existing employees to become mentors
- Offer a mutually beneficial opportunity for a myriad of workplaces

*Internships can be paid through the organization or by grants, or it can be unpaid. If unpaid, you may consider offering other compensation such as travel or meal stipends.

Possible Student roles:

- Aid Worker
- Corporate Education Leader Aid
- Business Development Liaison
- Non-Profit Administration
- Community Program Assistant
- Youth Mentor
- Student Advising Helper
- Learning Consultantship
- Community Organization Assistant
- Advocacy or Activism Work
- Volunteer Coordinator
- Curriculum Developer Assistant
- Training Coordinator

Become an Intern Host

Fill out this survey to become an intern host.

A member of our team will follow up with you to discuss the next steps. For more information, contact: internships.edgc@mcgill.ca

McGill

Department of
Integrated Studies
in Education