McGill University – Faculty of Law

FACULTY OF LAW

FACULTÉ DE DROIT

PROGRAMME BCL/LLB

Where will McGill take you?

Proudly bilingual, rigorously pluralistic, the McGill BCL/LLB program broke the mold for legal education in our fast-paced, globalized world. Our students learn legal concepts comparatively – through the lens of the common law and the civil law – with Indigenous legal traditions and perspectives from legal traditions the world over incorporated into our unique approach to teaching law. La vision critique et originale qui distingue la formation en droit à McGill est un véritable tremplin pour ceux et celles dont les idées contribueront à transformer le monde des affaires ou la société.

No other law program reaches further. Our students graduate with two law degrees: a Bachelor of Common Law (LLB, equivalent to a JD) and a Bachelor of Civil Law; opening the door to legal careers in all Canadian provinces, several US states, and beyond. Où qu'ils aillent, les diplômés et diplômées de McGill sont reconnus pour l'agilité intellectuelle avec laquelle ils font face aux problèmes complexes, pour leur compréhension approfondie de divers systèmes juridiques et leur sensibilité en matière de diversité et de pluralité de points de vue.

Wherever you are headed, McGill will take you there.

If you come to McGill and dive right into it, embrace this radical idea of legal pluralism, and transsystemia, you are setting yourself up for a lifetime of broadened horizons in Law. You are making yourself incredibly agile, and adaptable, through the permanent sense of intellectual curiosity that McGill fosters.”

David Sandomierski, Class of 2008,
Former clerk to the Chief Justice,
Assistant Professor at Western University's Faculty of Law

INDIGENOUS PRESENCE

McGill is committed to bolstering the place of Indigenous legal traditions in legal education at the Faculty, as well as supporting Indigenous students who consider applying at McGill.

- Indigenous legal traditions incorporated in many courses
- Promoting teaching and research on Indigenous legal traditions
- Internships and legal clinic opportunities in Indigenous communities and organizations

- Funding available to help Indigenous students meet the bilingualism (Fr/En) requirements for admission
- Indigenous applicants invited to self-identify and upload additional documents with their admissions application

First Nations, Inuit and Métis persons are strongly encouraged to apply to the Faculty of Law. Visit our website to find out about our services and funding opportunities to support Indigenous applicants.
