

ORIENTATION WORKSHOP FOR 'NEW' FACULTY

Sites of Interest

LIBRARY & Information resources services

Overview of library resources and how to navigate them

McGill Library system

<http://www.mcgill.ca/library/>

Life Sciences Library

<http://www.mcgill.ca/library/library-using/branches/lsl/>

Information on private research consultations by librarians at the Life Sciences Library available to persons associated with McGill University

<http://www.mcgill.ca/library/library-using/branches/lsl/consult/>

McGill Libraries online catalogue - Allows users to find information on account history, overdue fees and to reserve or request books

<http://mcgill.worldcat.org/>

Information on how to connect to library resources from inside and outside the McGill Virtual Private Network

<http://www.mcgill.ca/library/library-using/connect/>

Links to the various MUHC and McGill libraries most frequently used by faculty and staff in the Faculty of Medicine

<http://www.muhc.ca/education/library/>

Training opportunities provided by the libraries

Courses currently on offer at the Life Sciences Library <http://www.mcgill.ca/library/library-using/branches/lsl/classes/>

Workshops offered by the McGill Library system <http://www.mcgill.ca/library/library-assistance/classes/>

A list of citation styles and style guides prepared by the McGill Library
<http://www.mcgill.ca/library/library-assistance/how-to-cite/>