

Temporary Assignment AMUSE
Position Title :	Standardized Patient
Hiring Unit :	Steinberg Centre for Simulation and Interactive Learning
Hours :	Variable
Hourly Wage :	$16.09/hour for communication scenarios $19.31/hour for physical scenarios
Duration :	Present - May 31, 2018
Date of Posting :	June 1, 2017
Job Summary
Will assist in the training of individuals studying or working in the health care profession. They will be coached and trained to accurately and consistently recreate the history of an actual patient in a specific scenario. If necessary, will be coached and trained on providing directed feedback pertinent to the scenario and exercise at hand. Standardized Patients are expected to respect rules and regulations of the Steinberg Centre for Simulation and Interactive Learning and maintain confidentiality at all times.
Education/Experience
Standardized Patients must be open individuals who have an interest in the educational aspects of the Steinberg Centre for Simulation and Interactive Learning.
Other Qualifying Skills & Abilities
Background in health care. Good communication skills. Bilingualism and experience in dramatic arts are assets. The ability to speak openly and constructively. Individuals who can follow instruction and are able to prepare material autonomously. The ability to work with sensitive matters in a professional and mature fashion. Flexible work schedules.
HOW TO APPLY
Please submit your photograph (non-professional or professional) and resume via email at simspadmin.med@mcgill.ca McGill University is committed to equity in employment and diversity. It welcomes applications from people who are multilingual, indigenous peoples, visible minorities, ethnic minorities, persons with disabilities, women, persons of minority sexual orientations and gender identities, and others who may contribute to further diversification.	