

Arboretum <sup>Morgan</sup>

Walker by Barbara Joyce

Quite a few leaves still hanging on their twigs in spite of the strong winds of the last few days. Mostly beech in a wide range of ochre shades, mixed with some late turning sugar maple leaves in citrus tones. Despite the weather seeming dreary, many of the colours show up better in these subdued lighting conditions. Enjoy the last of warm colors before the white season.

Info : 514-398-7811

www.morganarboretum.org