Evaluation based on one major paper and seminar presentation(s). Late papers without excuse will be penalized by ½ mark per seminar-day delay.

Description:

This only a brief announcement to respond to repeated enquiries by students regarding the subject covered by this course. We shall read together Hegel's Lectures on the Philosophy of Art, and relevant excerpts from the Phenomenology of Spirit and the Encyclopaedia. This is all very tentative. A full syllabus will be posted in due time.

McGill University values academic integrity. Therefore all students must understand the meaning and consequences of cheating, plagiarism and other academic offences under the Code of Student Conduct and Disciplinary Procedures (see <http://www.mcgill.ca/integrity> for more information).

In the event of extraordinary circumstances beyond the University's control, the content and/or evaluation scheme in this course is subject to change.

In accord with McGill University's Charter of Students' Rights, students in this course have the right to submit in English or in French any written work that is to be graded.
