Tenure-Track Faculty Position
Open to rank of Associate Professor or Professor
Canada Research Chair Tier 1 in Child Well-Being for eligible candidate

Position in Faculty of Arts, School of Social Work

Position description
The Professor of Social Work in Child Well-Being will play a leadership role in the School of Social Work and the Faculty of Arts in linking to McGill’s Healthy Brains Healthy Lives Program (HBHL), a seven-year $84 million federally funded initiative building on McGill’s world renowned expertise in neuroscience. The successful candidate will have an internationally recognized record of funded research and publications in the areas of child development, child psychopathology and child mental health.

If the successful candidate satisfies the specific eligibility conditions of the program, the candidate may be supported by the University for nomination to a Tier 1 Canada Research Chair (CRC) in Child Well-Being, which provides protected time for research within a full-time academic appointment.

A Tier 1 CRC is a senior chair to be held by a full Professor or an Associate Professor who will earn a senior promotion within two years of acceptance of the award. The eligibility conditions for the CRC chairs are described at http://www.chairs-chaires.gc.ca/program-programme/nomination-mise_en_candidature-eng.aspx#s3.

Job Duties

Primary academic duties consist of teaching, research and other scholarly and professional activities, and service contributions to the University and scholarly communities. With regard to teaching, the successful hire will be required to participate in classroom instruction and student supervision within the guidelines of the School of Social Work and in accordance with the University’s requirements as described in Appendix A of the Regulations Relating to the Employment of Tenure Track and Tenured Academic Staff (http://www.mcgill.ca/secretariat/policies/index/e-g/).

Qualifications and Education requirements

A Ph.D. in social work or a related field and a BSW or MSW degree are required.

Associate Professors who do not satisfy the CRC eligibility criteria for a Tier 1 chair are nonetheless invited to apply for the position.
