In the News

♦ Dr. Veronique Bohbot quoted in the Washington Post

Using Google maps may reduce the amount of grey matter in your brain

wapo.st/1SCdUDg

♦ A Turning Tide? Public Perceptions of Mental Illness in Canada

Dr. Whitley set up a camera outside CAMH in Toronto, asking passers-by their thoughts about mental illness. This led to a number of surprising, humane, compassionate and insightful perspectives from local residents. Click here for video:

https://youtu.be/LawryBC8RA

Events

Mon, Apr 11 @ 11:00
(Montreal Neurological Institute: BELL Room B3 level of the BTRC)

Multiple sclerosis: translational approaches—Dr. Patrizia Casaccia

Tues, Apr 12 @ 12:30-14:00
(MCH Glen Site Block B, RC 3535)

Research Seminar: DNA Methylation Mediating the Impact of Early Life Experience on Mental and Physical Health

Wed, Apr 13 @ 10:00
(Douglas Hospital Perry E 3517)

A machine learning approach to identify individuals developing AD dementia in two years—Sulantha Sanjeeva

Fri, Apr 15 @ 10:30
(Douglas Hospital Perry E3517)

PNDDR Lecture with Dr. Dr. Amélie M. Achim

Fri, Apr 15 @ 11:00-12:30
(Allan Memorial Institute, South Seminar P1.082)

Grand Rounds: Neurofunctional and neurophysiological correlates of motor learning and consolidation—Dr. Julien Doyon

Mon, Apr 18 @ 15:00
(Douglas Hall, Douglas Institute)

The neurobiology of child abuse and neglect: Implications for the pathogenesis and treatment of mood and anxiety disorders—Dr. Charles B. Nemeroff

Wed, Apr 20 @ 15:00
(Bowerman room, Dobell Pavilion, Douglas Mental Health Institute)

Wed, Apr 27 @ 13:30-16:30
(Institute of Community & Family Psychiatry Amphitheatre)

Cultural Psychiatry Day 2016: An Interactive videoconference on Physician Assisted Death

Fri, Apr 29 @ 17:00 Abstract Submission Deadline

Annual Douglas Research Day (June 10) abstract submission deadline

Wed, May 11 @ 8:00-18:00
(Jewish General Hospital Block Amphithéâtre B-106)

Journée scientifique / Science Day: CIMA-Q (Register by May 6)

Mon, May 30 @ 8:30-21:00
(Institute of Community & Family Psychiatry auditorium)

Advanced Study Institute Conference—Psychiatry for a Small Planet: Ecosocial Approaches to Global Mental Health