

Paul Martin Sr., Catholicism & Canadian Liberalism

Keynotes

The Right Hon. Paul Martin Jr.

Greg Donaghy Author of Grit: The Life and Politics of Paul Martin Sr. (2015)

Panel Respondents

André Blais, PhD: Canada Research Chair in Electoral Studies, Université de Montréal

Antonia Maioni, PhD: Professor in Political Science, McGill University

Daniel Cere, PhD: Interim Dean, Faculty of Religious Studies

From health care through policies on labour & immigration to critiques of nationalism, Paul Martin Sr.'s engagement with leading Catholic scholars, such as Étienne Gilson, Jacques Maritain, and his deep reading of John Henry Newman, sheds light on unsuspecting links between Catholic social thought and Canadian liberalism.

Wednesday, February 17th 2016 | Newman Centre 3484 Peel Street

4:00- 4:40: Lecture by Greg Donaghy | 4:40-5:30 Panel & Questions | 5:30-6:10: Response by Paul Martin Jr. | 6:10 Reception

Open to the public. Limited seating. Kindly RSVP.

Organizers: Daniel Cere, PhD and Robert Di Pede, PhD

RSVP

info@catholicstudies.ca

514 398-4106

McGill

Catholic Studies Programme
Newman Institute of Catholic Studies
Faculty of Religious Studies

Programme en études catholiques
Institut Newman d'études catholiques
Faculté des études religieuses