MINOR IN EDUCATION FOR SCIENCE STUDENTS
(18 credits)

This Minor allows Science students to develop or explore an interest in Education without committing themselves to completing a B.Ed. degree. Science students who have taken this Minor in Education will have completed a substantial number of the necessary credits for the B.Ed. degree should they wish to enrol in that program. The Minor also allows the possibility of transferring into the Concurrent B.Sc. and B.Ed. program, since the 18 credits for the Minor, with the exception of EDEM 220, are also among the Education courses required in this dual degree program. Equally, students having completed a B.Sc. degree, including the Minor, whose content substantially matches that of one of the concurrent B.Sc. and B.Ed. combinations (see below) are likely eligible for the maximum number of 60 Advanced standing credits, as specified by the Faculty of Education.

Required Course
(3 credits)
EDPE 300 (3) Educational Psychology
