Through the Sustainability Monthly Challenges (created by MOOS), we wanted to encourage people to further participate in the challenge for the month of November. The theme was Reduce your Waste. With the funding, we were able to purchase jars with the dry-ingredients for a meal by YogiBelly. If people participated (either by storing their waste in a container throughout the month or by writing out a testimony of something they started to do this month to decrease their waste production), we gave them a jar at the end of the month.
